Certificate I in Transition Education

Nationally Recognised Training

The focus of this course is to support learners with an intellectual disability to develop the skills to find the most appropriate option for them in the community. This may include employment, volunteer work or further study.

The course will develop valuable learning and social skills by exploring:

- independent living
- personal development
- vocational and employability skills
- community involvement
- volunteering effectively
- basic literacy and numeracy
- use of everyday technology.

DELIVERY METHOD

Delivery of this course is via face-to-face classes at Cobram Community House.

All equipment and resources are provided for learners enrolling in this course.

Class times Tuesdays 9.15am - 3.00pm
at Cobram Community House

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

This Certificate is restricted to post-compulsory school aged learners with evidence of a permanent cognitive impairment / intellectual disability. There are no course pre-requisites as this course is at foundation level.

Learners must be able to show evidence of a diagnosed intellectual disability or specific learning difficulties requiring additional support.

Evidence could include:

- Formal assessment by a registered medical practitioner
- Doctors / specialist reports
- Attendance at a Special School / SDS

Learners will be required to undertake a Pre-Training Review and Language, Literacy and Numeracy assessment. This will identify any competencies previously acquired through Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL), or Credit Transfer, ascertain that the proposed learning strategies and materials are appropriate for each student and to ascertain current learning, reading writing, oral communication and numeracy skills. The pre-training review will determine if this course is suitable for you.
